Matt Dillon Day

Mayor Kelly declared July 12th, Matt Dillon Day in the City and asked that all Saint Paul citizens welcome the film crew as we host another movie production which adds to our commitment to fostering arts, culture and entertainment in the city. "Factotum" is based on a book by Charles Bukowski. Directed by Bent Hamer and starring Matt Dillon and Marisa Tomei. (Photo, Jason Reid)

New Business Division Manager

Dave Wagner was selected from three finalists to serve as Saint Paul Regional Water Services business division manager; he replaces Barb Woolsey, who retired on June 30, 2004.

Wagner said that he is quite excited about this opportunity and looks forward to serving the utility and its customers in a new capacity. "My approach is pretty simple," he said. "Work hard and get things done. Work together and support each other."

Wagner began his career with SPRWS in 1987 as a project engineer

Please print this for your co-workers. The City is continuing to save money by not producing printed copies of the City Update, but still needs to communicate to all employees. Please help by printing this newsletter (preferably back-to-back) for workers in your area who do not have computer access. Thank you.

for the Engineering Section. In 1992, he was appointed to serve as manager of the Engineering Section, until he became assistant manager of Production in 1997. He returned to Engineering Division in 2001, where he worked as interim engineering division manager and was responsible for managing the utility's capital program, security issues, and other projects including, as noted, the move to the campus. Prior to working for the utility, Wagner worked as a consultant for two years.

Wagner is a proud resident of Saint Paul, living in the Como area with his wife, Teri, and their three children.
